MIAMI INK

Bienvenido a Art Basel. Here are our Top Ten shows to see and parties to hit!

For the past six years, Art Basel has proved there is more to Miami than trance beats and bilingual eye candy, culling 200 galleries and more than 2,000 artists from around the globe. Iconic Basquiats will be juxtaposed against Futura's graffiti murals, Erwin Wurm's spontaneous sculptures, Luiz Zerbini's multi-media masterpieces, Nathalie Djurberg's claymation narratives, and Philippe Perrot's pen and ink abstractions. Takashi Murakami is hosting the first-ever Geisai Art Fair; bands from clashing genres like Iggy Pop and the Stooges and Deerhoof are performing; not to mention, with KAWS, Yves Behar, Lawrence Weiner, and others designing special edition tattoos of their art, you now have more, er, investment options. Here, our Top Ten shows to see and parties to hit!

1. AS LONG AS IT LASTS

what: Wear your art on your sleeve, literally. Tobias Wong, Josée Lepage and Aric Chen have organized "As Long A It Lasts" a pop-up tattoo parlor featuring tattoos designed by Vito Acconci, Hella Jongerius, 5.5 Designers, KAWS, Yves Behar, Lawrence Weiner, Jurgen Mayer H, and Tord Boontje & Andrew Allenson, to let you leave Miami with a permanent souvenir.

where: The Loft Building, 3841 NE 2nd Ave.

when: Dec. 6-9.

2. GEISAI ART FAIR

what: That Takashi Murakami is hosting the opening night for the first annual Geisai Art Fair should be enough of a draw, but Eric Doeringer's unabashed bootlegs of Richard Prince works should seal the deal.

where: Prive, 136 Collins Avenue.

when: Opens Dec. 4 (11 pm)

3. F.A.M.E. COLLECTIVE POP UP GALLERY

what: Busta Rhymes and D.J. Samantha Ronson know how to throw a party. The F.A.M.E. Collective—which includes Futura, MARS 1, Shawn Barber, Jeremy Fish, and Ron English—has enlisted the two to host the opening for their Pop Up Gallery, where they will also debut a pair of limited edition JB Classics kicks.

where: Mansion 1235 Washington Ave.

when: Dec. 7 (11pm)
